MEMORANDUM

To: Oneida Business Committee
From: Michele Doxtator, Oneida Election Board Chairwoman
Date: September 3, 2014
Subject: Judicial Special Election Dates

The Oneida Election Board (OEB) is recommending conducting the Judicial Special Election on September 27th in Oneida and Milwaukee, to be able to comply with the required 10 day notice. The polls will be open from 7:00 A.M. to 7 P.M. at both polling sites.

To reduce expenses OEB will hand count the Milwaukee ballots and will seek alternates from the Milwaukee area. Hand counting the ballots is a savings of $800, for each alternate from the Milwaukee area the savings will be $300.

The Oneida Election Board is requesting that up to five (5) alternates from the Milwaukee area be sworn in prior to the September 25, 2014.

Once the date of the Special Election is confirmed the OEB will be submitting a travel request for at least five (5) but no more than 10 to Travel to Milwaukee for travel. In addition to the OEB members, there will be two (2) people from the Enrollment Department and an Oneida Police Officer.
