ONEIDA TRIBAL JUDICIAL SYSTEM
APPELLATE COURTRECEIVED BY:

Michael T. Debraska, Leah Sue Dodge, et al.
Appellants

Case No.: 14-AC-012

v.
Oneida Business Committee, Oneida Election Board,
Oneida Law Office, Respondents

Date: September 2, 2014

APPELLANTS' RESPONSE TO RESPONDENTS' MOTION TO LIFT STAY ON SPECIAL ELECTION

On Thursday August 28, 2014 the Oneida Business Committee (BC) unanimously passed BC Resolution 08-28-14-A which cites BC Resolution 03-13-02-O (Exhibit A) which states that “the Oneida Constitution reflects an intent to promote the widest possible participation of Oneida people in their governance,” and that “the use of [a SEOTS] polling site is likely to increase participation in tribal elections.”¹ So why would the Respondents ever exclude the SEOTS polling site in any elections?

As demonstrated by the case now before the Court, decisions by “Oneida people in their governance” are determined not only via triennial General Elections but also via Special Elections. Therefore, Appellants ask again that the Court issue a Declaratory Ruling (as a form of relief sought in the Appellants’ Brief at the Trial Court level in this case, yet ignored in the Trial Court’s Decision) to address whether, in order to protect the “intent” of the Oneida Constitution by “promot[ing] the widest possible participation,” the SEOTS polling site should be included in all Tribal elections and not be excluded based on arbitrary and/or capricious decisions of the Election Board, the Business Committee nor the Appeals Commission.

¹The Oneida Law Office’s March 7, 2002 ‘Statement of Effect’ regarding BC Resolution 03-13-02-O, included in Exhibit A, states that the “resolution (a) designates a facility in Milwaukee be chosen in accordance with the Oneida Election Law, as a second polling site for the July, 2002 and future Oneida elections,” but does not mention anything about the Respondents’ ability to selectively exclude or include the SEOTS polling site regarding Special Elections as opposed to General Elections.

The Respondents state in their Motion to lift the Stay of the Special Election that they'll include the SEOTS polling site as an "exception" made at their discretion, underscoring the arbitrary and/or capricious nature of their theory about the inclusion of the SEOTS polling site in elections and demonstrating their belief that, despite their mandate and ability to abide by the Constitution's intent to "promote the widest participation of Oneida people," they chose not to without explanation or justification. Appellants suspect this suggests that ulterior motives were at play in the Respondents' decisions based on their concerns regarding the impact the SEOTS polling site could have on election results, if not merely resulting from a lack of competence and/or disinterest in protecting and promoting the voting rights of all Tribe members.

BC Resolutions cannot trump the Election Law passed by GTC which states at 2.12-10, "All Special Elections shall follow rules established for all other elections. This includes positions for all Boards, Committees and Commissions."² While that language conflicts with other parts of the Election Law which establish different rules for Special Elections (2.7-3; 2.9-1; 2.11-11(b); 2.12-6; 2.12-8), BC Resolution 03-13-02-O (and thus BC Resolution 08-28-14-A) acknowledge the intent of the Constitution to "promote the widest possible participation of Oneida people," which translates into the need for the Court to address how to best ensure sufficient notice to Tribe members whenever the election of the Judiciary is held.

Section B., 2.12-6 of the Election Law states, "Dates of all Special Elections shall be set, as provided for in this law, by the Business Committee as recommended by the Election Board or as ordered by the Oneida Appeals Commission in connection with an election challenge." [Emphasis ours]

Appellants maintain that the term "election challenge" applies to election results challenges as well as the challenge before the Court regarding Respondents' decision to schedule and notice an election in a way that failed to “promote the widest participation of Oneida people” by not reflecting GTC’s vote to include the Judiciary in the 2014 General Election which involved the SEOTS polling site, and therefore the Court has the right to determine the date on which the Special Election for the Judiciary candidates will occur.

However, Appellants also maintain that it would be in the best interests of the Oneida people for GTC to determine the date on which the Judiciary election should be held, just as GTC did for the 2014 General Election in which the Judiciary election was originally supposed to take place, and for notice to be made in the same way that it was for that General Election as outlined in 2.7-3 of the Election Law. [This is another form of relief that Appellants will request in their Brief which is due to the Court by September 22, 2014.]

BC Resolution 08-28-14-A states, “further delay of election for the new Judiciary until the Appellate Court of the Oneida Appeals Commission rules on the merits of the case would make it impossible to train new Judges and have them ready by the November 1, 2014 deadline[.]”

This sudden concern for meeting a ‘deadline’ stands in stark contrast with the BC’s lax actions regarding other GTC directives, mandates and ‘deadlines’ that the BC has failed, and is failing, to abide by.

As an example, BC Resolution 08-02-00-B states that the following be resolved: “[OBC]...recognizes a need, expressed by [GTC], that the Oneida Tribe should and must be restructured to meet the needs of the membership today and on a long term basis, and...[OBC] shall continue its efforts to bring back a restructuring plan that meets those needs and shall schedule a meeting during which restructuring plans, including the December 18, 1999 restructuring plan, can be properly introduced and lawfully adopted by [GTC.]” Yet, fourteen years later the BC has not brought a plan back to GTC for their lawful adoption.

Similarly, GTC voted on June 16, 2014 for a Land Use Plan to come before GTC for a vote no later than October 31, 2014 and for Community Meetings to be held prior to GTC being presented that plan for approval, yet no Community Meetings regarding the Land Use Plan have been announced and no October 2014 GTC Special Meeting date has been scheduled by the BC, despite the GTC's approved 'deadline.'

At the August 13, 2013 BC Regular Meeting the BC voted to cancel the September 22, 2014 GTC Meeting about the Tribal budget saying that the newly-elected BC needed more time to study the Tribal budget before presenting it to GTC for approval, but as of yet no GTC Meeting to address the Tribal budget has been scheduled despite the fact that GTC's decisions at that not-yet-scheduled GTC Meeting could significantly impact the ability of the BC to implement the Judiciary by November 1, 2014.

Appellants argue that, likewise, GTC should be given time to reconsider the practicality of the November 1, 2014 date for implementation of the Judiciary based on factors including their assessment of the ways in which the BC has implemented the Judiciary Transition Plan, scheduled the Judiciary caucus, and planned the Judiciary election, as well as serious budgetary concerns, in order to make certain that such an endeavor proceeds with the "widest possible participation of the Oneida people in their governance".

Just as the BC exercised their ability on June 16, 2014 to come before GTC to request (1) a re-caucus of the Judiciary candidates due to errors made by the Legislative Operating Committee of which BC members constitute five members, and (2) to postpone the election of the Judiciary from a General Election to a Special Election from which the the SEOTS polling site was inexplicably excluded resulting in the Appellants' filings and subsequently the Stay issued by the Court, the BC now has the opportunity to schedule a GTC Special Meeting to apologize to GTC for delaying the Transition process by excluding the SEOTS polling site from the Special Election for the Judiciary and to request that GTC allow the BC to delay implementation of the Judiciary in order to guarantee the widest participation of Tribe members in decisions regarding the election and implementation of the Judiciary. Appellants maintain that this also includes the need for GTC to be able to consider whether to once again re-caucus Judiciary candidates.

It should be noted that shortly after 8:00 a.m. on Thursday August 28, 2014, Appellants Leah Dodge and Frank Cornelius filed a Petition sponsored by four of five Appellants with the Tribal Secretary's Office, the purpose of which is: "For a GTC Meeting to be held in a timely manner on a Saturday or Sunday starting no later than 1 p.m. to allow for greater membership participation, and that GTC vote whether: (1) all Tribal elections include the SEOTS polling site, including the inaugural Judiciary Election as was GTC's intent by voting to include the Judiciary in the 2014 General Election; (2) to nullify any Judiciary Election that excludes the SEOTS polling site that may have occurred before the requested meeting is held; (3) a new Judiciary Caucus be held and that due notice be made in Kalihwisaks and prominent places 10 days prior to that Caucus and the inaugural Judiciary Election; (4) to address other Tribal election issues."

Whether the receipt of that Petition had an impact on the Respondents' decision to later that same day file the Motion to lift the Stay on the Special Election of the Judiciary by offering to make an "exception" and include the SEOTS polling site is uncertain, but the Petition was submitted in sufficient time for the Enrollments Office to certify the signatures in order for the Business Committee to be able to place the item on the September 10, 2014 BC Regular Meeting Agenda, as will be requested of the BC by Appellants.

Appellants maintain that the BC should schedule that requested GTC Meeting in a timely manner in order to: (1) explain to GTC why the SEOTS polling site was excluded from the Special Election of the Judiciary despite the intent of the Constitution to "promote the widest participation of the Oneida people in their governance" and the fact that GTC voted to include the Judiciary in the 2014 General Election to be held at both polling places; (2) explain why the BC may need to request that GTC vote to postpone the date for the implementation of the Judiciary rather than for the Election Board, BC or the Appeals Commission to make rushed judgments or take rash actions on matters that will have profound impacts on all Tribe members; (3) ask GTC whether a new Judiciary caucus should be held given that several GTC members were unaware of the July 6, 2014 Judiciary caucus held on a Sunday during a holiday weekend in which a Powwow was taking place; (4) address the means and ways by which scheduling and notification of all caucuses, primaries, and elections are to be made to Tribe members; (5) address apparent discrepancies in the Election Law's language regarding rules for Special Elections as opposed to General Elections.

Appellants further maintain Respondents will suffer no harm (other than perhaps losing face) in being denied their Motion to lift the Stay of the Judiciary election and are instead required to take these matters before GTC for their consideration, whereas Appellants as a class and GTC as a whole will suffer harm by being denied the possibility to delay implementation of the Judiciary due to actions by the Respondents and to decide whether to hold a new caucus, as well as how to notice and when to hold both a new caucus (if approved by GTC) and the Judiciary election, just as they did for the July 12, 2014 General Election.

Section B., 2.12-7 of the Election Law states, "Notice of said Special Election shall be posted by the Election Board in the prominent locations, and placed in the Tribal newspaper not less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the Special Election." [Appellants believe that, despite the distinction made in 2.7-3, there should be no difference in how any election is noticed, and will make that argument in their Brief.]

First, the 'publication date' of the Kalihwisaks is not the same as the 'distribution date' in that, while a digital copy of the Kalihwisaks is often made available in PDF format on the Tribe's website on Thursdays, physical copies of the actual newspaper are usually not widely available on the Oneida Reservation until the next day (Friday) or afterward when people receive copies via mail (sometimes not until Saturday).

Second, Appellant and Milwaukee resident Mike Debraska can testify that his receipt of Tribal newspapers, as well as other notices mailed to Tribe members, are often received more than a week after the publication date and/or after the receipt of those notices by Tribe members who live on the Oneida Reservation, thus well after activities noticed in the newspaper have occurred and thereby disallowing arrangements to be made for the “widest participation of the Oneida people” in short-noticed events, thereby putting several Tribe members at an unnecessary disadvantage regarding Tribal participation.^{3 4}

Appellants therefore request, in order to “promote the widest participation of the Oneida people” in the Special Election of the Judiciary candidates, that even if the Court assigns a date for the Judiciary election, rather than wait until the matter goes before GTC, that the Special Election be held on a Saturday from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. just as the July 12, 2014 General Election was held, and that notice of the Saturday election date be published in the Kalihwisaks no later than two weeks prior to that Saturday election date.

For example, if the notice was published in the September 25, 2014 issue of Kalihwisaks, the Special Election could be held no earlier than Saturday October 11, 2014, in order to protect the Constitutional intent to “promote the widest possible participation of the Oneida people in their governance[.]”

Appellants also request that the Court direct the Tribe to post a notice on all Tribal Facebook pages (Governmental, SEOTS, Kalihwisaks, etc.) on each day leading up to the rescheduled Judiciary election.

³ The August 7, 2014 Issue of the Kalihwisaks contained a Legal Notice of Hearing stating that a “diligent attempt was made to notify the list of individuals of a claim(s) filed by the Oneida Tribe for judgment against them. A hearing shall take place on August 5, 2014, at 10:00 a.m. in the above captioned case at the Oneida Tribal Judicial System Office; located at Ridgeview Plaza, Suite #1, 3759 W. Mason St, Oneida, WI, 54155.” Beyond the fact that Legal Notice wasn’t published in the Kalihwisaks until two days after the hearings date in question, two of the notices (14-TC-107; 14-TC-108) were for BC Member Brandon Yellowbird-Stevens. The inability of the Oneida Tribe Judicial System to notify a member of the BC who was featured on the front page of that particular Kalihwisaks issue only demonstrates that publication in the Kalihwisaks does not guarantee timely notification of Tribe members. Simultaneously, it calls into question the Appeals Commission’s notification methods and the actual significance of the Kalihwisaks as a means of proper notice of elections to Tribe members. See b B.

⁴ Appellant Leah Sue Dodge will testify that she did not receive notice of a Thursday August 21, 2014 Community Discussion regarding the Tribe’s future plans for the 54 OneStop near her property until Saturday August 23, 2014. That meeting was subsequently rescheduled, most likely due the fact that people complained that sufficient notice wasn’t given to Tribe members.

Alarming,ly, Section B., 2.12-8 of the Election Law states, "In the event of an emergency, the Election Board may reschedule the election, provided that no less than twenty-four (24) hours notice of the rescheduled election date is given to the voters, by posting notices in the prominent locations."

Appellants are very concerned that if the Court grants the Respondents' Motion to lift the Stay and allows the Election Board to make the decision as to when to reschedule the Judiciary election, the Election Board will likely claim that, due to the November 1, 2014 'deadline,' the delay of the vote caused by the Court's Stay meets their definition of what constitutes an "emergency" and they will choose to hold the election with very short notice, thereby causing harm to Tribe members by not "promoting the widest possible participation." Therefore, Appellants request that any decision the Court makes regarding the rescheduling of the Judiciary election be either (preferably) for GTC to decide that date and means of notice at a GTC Meeting, or for the Appeals Commission to schedule the Special Election (preferably after the Court has reviewed the Appellants' Brief due on September 22, 2014) as outlined above regarding the need for sufficient notice to be given to all in order to maximize voter participation at both polling places.

Appellants will address these matters and more in their Brief, but submit this Reply now in a timely manner to show why the Respondents' Motion to lift the Stay of the Special Election will cause harm to Appellants as a class and GTC as a whole, and therefore the Respondents' Motion should be denied by the Court until this case is fully adjudicated and/or the GTC Petition filed by Appellants on August 28, 2014 can be addressed at a GTC Meeting held prior to any election of the Judiciary.

Seeking Support

Dear TLC group:
 I commend your efforts to have meaningful dialogue about Tribal issues. I am Racquel "Rocky" Hill, and I am running for Trial Court Judge. I believe I possess the necessary leadership skills a judge needs – committing myself to personal leadership and growth, making decisions based on facts, and ensuring policies and procedures are adhered to. I strongly believe in being objective and fair, holding myself and others accountable, and treating everyone equally. I consider myself a work in progress with my character defects. My way isn't always the best way so I must keep an open mind and be compassionate towards and respect ideas of others.

It seems there is a lack of an enforcement mechanism with the current judicial system. Decisions are made; however, enforcement of court orders is missing. This is one area I would like to focus on to resolve quickly. In my opinion, giving back to the community would be more beneficial for the individual and the Tribe and a better learning experience rather than being made to pay fines so I will be looking into restitution by way of community involvement/community service.

As a lifelong resident, I care deeply about the Oneida Nation. I'm willing to take the necessary training and dig deep into the laws to learn and become as knowledgeable as possible to make the best fact-based decisions. My door will always remain open to everyone. I respectfully request your vote on August 23rd.

Oneida Safety Town Registration
 August 11-15, 2014

Did you know that unintentional injury is the leading cause of death in children? Did you know that ninety percent of these injuries can be prevented? Does your 4 to 6 year old know the rules that will keep him/her safe? Are those rules followed?

All very good questions. Not all children know the answers. But now, they can when you enroll them in the FREE Oneida SAFETY TOWN program. SAFETY TOWN is a 15 hour summer safety camp, designed for children ages four through six, to learn safety awareness and prevention in a fun and creative way. This is done under the guidance of certified teachers and trained safety professionals from throughout the community. Children are taught to evaluate "safe from unsafe" and learn how to react safely when confronted with potentially dangerous situations. This program offers children a classroom segment, as well as hands-on experience in Oneida's child sized SAFETY TOWN.

Safety topics in the week long sessions include: motor vehicle, pedestrian, bicycles, buses, safety belts, poisons, fires and burns, railroad crossings, playgrounds, animals, strangers, water, emergency 911.
