Case No.: 14-TC-190

v.
Oneida Business Committee, Oneida Election Board,
Oneida Law Office, Respondents

Date: November 6, 2014

AMEND COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs seek to incorporate the following into their Complaint filed on Wednesday, November 5, 2014, in case 14-TC-190 regarding their request for a TRO & Preliminary Injunction against the Special Election currently scheduled for November 22, 2014.

In Section II, Facts Surrounding Claim, the following three (3) paragraphs are to be inserted between paragraphs 3 and 4:

[START]

The September 15, 2014, Opinion by Chief Counsel Jo Anne House [Exhibit R] included in the October 16, 2014, GTC Meeting packet states on page 6, “it is not entirely clear if a primary election should be held. The purpose of a primary election was to reduce the number of candidates to either the top two (officer positions) or 15 candidates for the five Council member positions. This would equal three candidates for the five Council member positions, or 15 candidates for a single Council member position. The legislative history suggests the former is the intent. Since this is for a single positions, it is not likely that a primary will result in narrowing the field considerably since 15 candidates would be transferred to the final ballot. It is a policy decision regarding whether a primary should be conducted if a Special Election is called.”

The Chief Counsel’s analysis is flawed, however, as it fails to recognize that GTC Resolution 01-04-10-A, Amendments to the Election Law [Exhibit F] clearly states, “proposed amendments to the [Election] Law were presented to the GTC on October 11, 2008 and the GTC approved the amendments that pertained to conducting primary elections and deferred the rest of the amendments to the July 11, 2009 GTC,” yet those amendments were then deferred three more times until January 04, 2010 when they were finally adopted by GTC. This shows that the necessity of a holding a primary regarding OBC positions was considered a very important matter by GTC.

The Election Law [Exhibit E], as approved and amended by GTC, says nothing at 2.12, Section A., Primary Elections; Business Committee, or anywhere else in the Law, regarding a distinction between the necessity of holding a primary for a Special Election as opposed to a General Election when there are more than sixteen (16) candidates for the at-large council member positions. Nor does the Election Law make any distinction regarding the number of OBC Council member positions to which the Law applies, so the requirement for a primary is the same for one position as it is for five.

In fact, the Election Law states at 2.12-12, “All Special Elections shall follow rules established for all other elections.” Therefore, not holding a primary sixty (60) days prior to the election to address the OBC vacancy if there are sixteen (16) or more candidates to address the OBC vacancy requires that GTC vote by a two-thirds (2/3) majority to amend or temporarily suspend the requirement in the Election Law to hold a primary. No such vote was taken at the October 26, 2014, GTC Meeting, and until GTC votes otherwise, the requirement in the Election Law for a primary and not simply a matter of a “policy decision” as the Chief Counsel falsely claims, but is instead a matter of established Tribal Law and must be treated as such by the Trial Court.

[END]

Also in Section II, Facts Surrounding Claim, the following paragraph is to be inserted between paragraphs 11 and 12:

[START]

Robert's Rules of Order As Used by the General Tribal Council [Exhibit I], which is posted on the OTIW website, reads as follows:

Motion to Reconsider

This motion is brought forward by a member wishing to bring a matter back before the body. The matter must be on the agenda and the membership must have received reasonable notice. The motion must be seconded, and it requires a majority vote. If the vote passes, the motion or prior action is on the floor as if the prior vote did not occur.

Note: There are circumstances when reconsidering a prior motion is not in order.

Therefore, the wording of the motion, "to reconsider adoption of option B," as was typed on the projectors before the vote was taken, as seen in the video of the GTC Meeting [Exhibit H] and as replicated in the GTC Meeting Action Report [Exhibit J], can only legally mean that the motion was solely for GTC to reconsider but not to adopt Option B. It is the wording of the motion that GTC relied on in voting, and the intentions of the motioner and the seconder and the belief of the Chair based on her consultation with the Parliamentarian are thus irrelevant. Therefore, General Tribal Council did not take any legal action to adopt any options to address the OBC vacancy at the October 26, 2014, GTC Meeting. The caucus which took place at the GTC Meeting and the scheduling of a Special Election for November 22, 2014 were both illegal and must be considered null and void, and GTC must reconvene at another duly noticed and held GTC meeting in order to legally adopt any action regarding the OBC vacancy as GTC has not done so yet.

[END]

Additionally, in Section II, Facts Surrounding Claim, the following paragraph is to be inserted between paragraphs 12 and 13:

[START]

A page on the OTIW website shows a Notice for a “Special Election to fill the OBC vacancy” to be held on November 22, 2014 [Exhibit P], and has a link to a Sample Ballot posted on the OTIW website which lists the names of sixteen (16) candidates [Exhibit Q], yet that number might not include those Tribe members who may have filed petitions to be included as candidates on the final ballot.

[END]

In Section III, Applicable Laws, paragraph 5 is to be amended to read as follows:

[START]

5. Robert’s Rules of Order As Used by the General Tribal Council

[Exhibit I], which is posted on the OTIW website, says:

Two-Thirds Vote – used to overturn a previous action as identified in the Ten Day Notice Policy. Requires two-thirds of those voting to take action, excluding those who choose to abstain. The total number of votes, divided by three, multiplied by two. Fragments are included in the ‘yes’ votes as that is where two-thirds of the vote lies.

And:

Motion to Reconsider

This motion is brought forward by a member wishing to bring a matter back before the body. The matter must be on the agenda and the membership must have received reasonable notice. The motion must be seconded, and it requires a majority vote. If the vote passes, the motion or prior action is on the floor as if the prior vote did not occur.

Note: There are circumstances when reconsidering a prior motion is not in order.

[END]

With the exception of Exhibits P, Q, and R, which are included with this document, all of the other exhibits cited above were already submitted along with the Complaint filed with the Trial Court on Wednesday, November 5, 2014.

Plaintiffs would also like to note for the record that, given the need to address these matters in a timely manner, it would obviously be inappropriate for this case to be transferred to the Oneida Judiciary which will not be scheduling hearings until March 2015 at the earliest.

Therefore Plaintiffs strongly preemptively object to potential requests by any of the Respondents to transfer this case, which would clearly be understood by Plaintiffs as merely a stall tactic in an unlawful attempt to allow the Special Election illegally scheduled for Saturday, November 22, 2014, to proceed despite the fact that no legal vote was taken at the October 16, 2014, GTC Meeting to adopt any actions to address the OBC vacancy, and the Tribal Constitution requires that GTC, not the Respondents, make the final decision at a duly noticed and held GTC Meeting as to how to address any vacancy on the OBC.

Signed this 6th day of November, 2014,

MEMORANDUM

Exhibit R

TO: Oneida Business Committee
FROM: Jo Anne House, Chief Counsel
DATE: September 15, 2014
SUBJECT: Opinion – Filling a Vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee

You have requested a legal opinion regarding the filling of a vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee resulting after an election has been finalized and oath of office taken. Council Member Ben Vieau submitted a resignation from the Oneida Business Committee effective September 12, 2014 at the close of business. Chairwoman Cristina Danforth has requested a Special Oneida Business Committee to call a Special General Tribal Council meeting to fill the vacancy.

Applicable Law

The Constitution contains the following language in Article III, section 3.

The General Tribal Council may at any regular or special meeting fill any vacancies that occur on the Business Committee for the unexpired term.

Article III, Section 4, the Constitution contains the following language.

...The General Tribal Council shall enact necessary rules and regulations governing the election of tribal officials....

The General Tribal Council adopted the current Election Law in 1993, and the latest amendments by resolution # GTC-1-04-10-A. This law addresses calling elections, operating elections, and closure of elections. There is no rule or regulation regarding filling a vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee after an election has been concluded and during the course of a term of office.<sup>1</sup>

The Oneida Business Committee is delegated Article IV authority under action taken by the General Tribal Council in 1969 and further identified in subsequent actions.<sup>2</sup> However, election <sup>1</sup> Although the issue presented here is a vacancy resulting from a resignation and not a removal, the Removal Law was reviewed to determine if any guidance exists to fill a vacancy under this law. There is no direction in this law. It should be recommended to the Legislative Operating Committee that this be addressed and amendments presented for adoption by the General Tribal Council to avoid the questions raised in the event of a removal and how that vacancy would be filled.

or selection of Oneida Business Committee members is not in Article IV. Direction regarding filling vacancies resides in Article III. As a result, the Oneida Business Committee has not been delegated authority to address this matter, even to the extent of calling a Special Election to fill the vacancy.

Past General Tribal Council Actions

The General Tribal Council has addressed the issue of a vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee on several occasions, although no more recent than the 1980s. A review of those prior General Tribal Council actions back to 1969, when amendments to the Constitution were adopted, identifies the following actions of the General Tribal Council regarding filling vacancies on the Oneida Business Committee. Prior to 1969, the Executive Committee minutes and General Tribal Council minutes is rather sparse making it difficult to identify actions with any level of certainty.

1976-1978

Between 1976 and 1978 there were a series of vacancies on the Oneida Business Committee. These vacancies were addressed in 1976, 1977 and then again in 1978 and are described below. I have used the minutes of the General Tribal Council or the Oneida Business Committee to identify the membership on the Oneida Business Committee where there is no other clear indicator of who filled the vacancy. I have underlined the vacancies discussed between the different ‘sets’ of Oneida Business Committee membership.

Oneida Business Committee identified on May 25, 1976 Minutes

Purcell Powless, Chair, Norbert Hill, Vice-Chair, Alma Webster, Treasurer, Amelia Cornelius, Secretary, and Council Members Rick Hill, Irene Moore, Joy Ninham, Ruth Baird, and Mervin Jordan.

- May 17, 1976: Motion to “hold Ruth Baird’s resignation in abeyance[.]” Oneida Business Committee, Minutes, pg. 2.<sup>3</sup>
- May 25, 1976: Motion to “consider a leave of absence from Council member Ruth Baird for an indefinite time[.]” Oneida Business Committee, Minutes, pg. 1.
- October 25, 1976: Motion to “accept the resignations of Peter Mervin Jordan from the Business Committee, O.T.D.C. and Nursing Home project superintendent[.]” Oneida Business Committee, Minutes, pg. 2.
- November 15, 1976: Motion to “accept Ruth Baird’s resignation from Oneida Business Committee[.]” Oneida Business Committee, Minutes, page 2.

<sup>3</sup> During this time period many meetings began as General Tribal Council meetings but as a result of the lack of a quorum the Oneida Business Committee concluded the agenda or took action. Most often, that occurred immediately after identifying that a quorum did not exist. As a result, the minutes may identify that a General Tribal Council meeting began, but the action taken was that of the Oneida Business Committee. I have referred to the action as coming from either the Oneida Business Committee or the General Tribal Council minutes based on which entity was called to order at the time, even though the minutes appear to be a combination of both.

Based on a review of minutes of the Oneida Business Committee minutes in the time period between May 17, 1976 and January 1977, it is presumed that the vacancies being filled are for Peter Mervin Jordan, who resigned October 25, 1976, Ruth Baird, who resigned November 15, 1976, and Irene Moore. It is not clear when the vacancy for Irene Moore was declared.

- August 19, 1978: except from minutes of General Tribal Council. General Tribal Council Minutes, August 19, 1978, no quorum.
  - “Due to lack of quorum [the Chairman] suggested we have a caucus at the first regular meeting on September 5, 1978, to nominate people to fill Eugene Danforth’s position on the Business Committee.”
  - “Bob Thomas suggested we taken the person with the next highest ballot count to fill the vacancy. Suggestion was invalid because however or whatever route is chosen, we have to follow the regular election ordinance; i.e., nominate four people, set a time and date and vote by ballot. The election ordinance needs to be revised or amended for General Tribal Council adoption to provide for procedures when situations like this occur.”<sup>5</sup>
  - [Rescheduled special General Tribal Council meeting for September 16, 1978.]
- September 16, 1978: “Quorum of general membership was not present at 1:30 p.m. so it was suggested that the business be handled at the next regular meeting of the Business Committee on Monday, September 18, 1978.” General Tribal Council Minutes, September 16, 1978, no quorum.

<sup>4</sup> There are two versions of this resolution identified. One appears to be a draft document from the record which would delegate authority to the Oneida Business Committee to schedule special elections to fill vacancies. Subsequently a signed version of resolution # GTC-04-16-77-A was located. This resolution addressed the April 16, 1977 action specifically.

<sup>5</sup> A review of the minutes of both the General Tribal Council and the Oneida Business Committee does not identify that these revisions have been presented or adopted. A review of prior versions of the Election Ordinance does not identify language that was considered to address the vacancy issue.

There is no identification in any minutes regarding how this was addressed. Based on the discussion in the minutes above, it is presumed that a caucus was held and a special election was scheduled.

Oneida Business Committee after based on Oneida Business Committee minutes of between October 3, 1978, and February 6, 1979

Exhibit R Page 5 of 7

There are no further vacancies identified on the Oneida Business Committee until 1982. In 1982, there are two sets of vacancies occurring. First, a vacancy occurred in June-July when a Council Member resigned. Second, vacancies occurred in October when four members of the Oneida Business Committee were removed from office.

Oneida Business Committee based on February 25, 1982 General Tribal Council minutes.

Gary Metoxen, Chair, Norbert S. Hill, Vice-Chair, Gordon McLester, Secretary, Wendell McLester, Treasurer, and Council Members Joy Ninham, Mark Powless, Tony Benson, Frank Cornelius, and Howard Cannon.

Joy Ninham was elected on the July 1981 General Elections based on the identification of members of the Oneida Business Committee in the minutes of the Oneida Business Committee and General Tribal Council. June 25, 1981, is the last set of minutes of the Oneida Business Committee or the General Tribal Council which references Joy Ninham as being on the Oneida Business Committee. In the July 1, 1982, Oneida Business Committee minutes Lloyd Powless is identified as a Council Member, presumably filling Joy Ninham's position. There is no record of how this took place.

I spoke with Bobbi Webster, Communications, Mark Ninham and Paul Ninham (Joy Ninham's sons) who confirm the resignation during that time frame. I also spoke with Lloyd Powless regarding this and he indicated that a special election was called to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. Finally, Records Management was able to locate August 2, 1982, Oneida Business Committee minutes which accepts the results of the special election in which Lloyd Powless was elected.

Oneida Business Committee based on August 8, 1982, Oneida Business Committee minutes.

Gary Metoxen, Chair, Norbert S. Hill, Vice-Chair, Gordon McLester, Secretary, Wendell McLester, Treasurer, and Council Members Lloyd Powless, Mark Powless, Tony Benson, Frank Cornelius, and Howard Cannon.

The General Tribal Council adopted resolution # GTC-10-02-82-A which suspended Oneida Business Committee members Gary Metoxen, Frank Cornelius, Wendell McLester, Howard Cannon, and Lloyd Powless. This resulted in a lack of a quorum for the Oneida Business Committee. The resolution further identified that "the Vice-Chairman will be in charge with the assistance and consent of the other three (3) Business Committee members to continue with day-to-day business of the Tribe.” This set in place an interim Oneida Business Committee.

- October 23, 1982: Gary Metoxen, Wendell McLester, Frank Cornelius, Howard Cannon were removed from office. Excerpts from the meeting minutes regarding filling these vacancies below. General Tribal Council Minutes, October 23, 1982.
  - “Mark Powless stated that a process is set in place now and the things that were just suggested [regarding the employment policies of the Tribe] need to be heard but the process now should be the process for election to fill the vacant positions. A caucus date should be set.”
  - “Parliamentarian stated that the Acting Business Committee and the attorneys and herself did work on a process to do what needed to be done. Discussion on next procedures.”
  - “Bobbie Webster made a motion to delegate to the Business Committee the setting of the caucus for the vacancies on the Business Committee.”
  - “Lee McLester moved to recess until November 1, 1982 at 7:00 P.M. at the Sacred Heart Auditorium and finish the original agenda and to hold the Caucus.”
- November 1, 1982: “Bobbie Webster moved to go to the caucus and table the balance of the Agenda.” General Tribal Council Minutes, November 1, 1982.

Oneida Business Committee based on December 1, 1982 Oneida Business Committee minutes. Purcell Powless, Chair, Norbert Hill, Vice-Chair, Kathy Hughes, Treasurer, Gordon McLester, Secretary, and Council Members Lois Powless, Loretta Metoxen, Lloyd Powless, Tony Benson, and Mark Powless.

Exhibit R      Page 6 of 7 Analysis

There are no laws or regulations regarding how a vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee is filled. Although the General Tribal Council recognized this gap needed to be filled at the meeting of August 1978, the procedural gap was not corrected.

There were 5 occasions when vacancies occurred on the Oneida Business Committee. Four of the five occasions occurred as a result of resignations. The October 1982 vacancies were the result of a removal. The records are clear about how all the vacancies occurred and filled. Although, it is not clear how the special election to fill Joy Ninham’s vacancy occurring in 1982 was called – i.e. by the Oneida Business Committee or the General Tribal Council.

Where there is discussion on the record regarding filling a vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee the process has been consistent.

- Call a General Tribal Council meeting, regular or special
- Notify of the vacancy(-ies) resulting on the Oneida Business Committee
- Call a caucus to nominate candidates at the meeting and notify the members that petitions will be accepted as identified in the Election Law
- Direct Oneida Business Committee to schedule a special election
- Accept candidate petitions

- Conduct special election

Exhibit R Page 7 of 7

The Election Board is now a formal institution of the Tribe and does not need to be appointed at the meeting. Initially, the special elections were scheduled from the floor of the General Tribal Council meeting. However, later actions directed the Oneida Business Committee to schedule the special election. Since the Election Law identifies specific timelines for the conduct of an election including petition deadlines, it is consistent with the Oneida Business Committee approving a Special Election date recommended by the Election Board. This would accommodate not only the nomination/petition process, but also scheduling the voting machines and ordering the ballots.

I have also highlighted two additional steps which would be affected by the current Election Law. First, General Elections for Oneida Business Committee members now have a primary election. Second, General Elections have polling places on the Reservation as well as in Milwaukee.

Based on the litigation regarding the Special Election for the Judiciary positions, and consistent with electing Oneida Business Committee members, it is recommended that if a Special Election is called that polling places be scheduled on the Reservation as well as in Milwaukee. However, it is not entirely clear if a primary election should be held. The purpose of a primary election was to reduce the number of candidates to either the top two (officer positions) or 15 candidates for the five Council member positions. This would equal either three candidates for a single Council member position, or 15 candidates for a single Council member position. The legislative history suggests the former is the intent. Since this is for a single position, it is not likely that a primary will result in narrowing the field considerably since 15 candidates would be transferred to the final ballot. It is a policy decision regarding whether a primary should be conducted if a Special Election is called.

Conclusion

The Constitution identifies that the General Tribal Council fills a vacancy on the Oneida Business Committee for the remainder of the term. The prior actions of the General Tribal Council have identified a preference for calling a special election to fill the vacancies. It is recommended that the Oneida Business Committee call a Special General Tribal Council meeting to hold a caucus and request a Special Election be scheduled. If this is the desired action, a resolution should be presented to the General Tribal Council for consideration which would identify the process for scheduling the Special Election.
