NOTICE TO BOND POSTER

Criminal defendants have the right to be eligible for release under Wisconsin Statute §969.01. You should, however, understand the potential risks involved before posting bond.

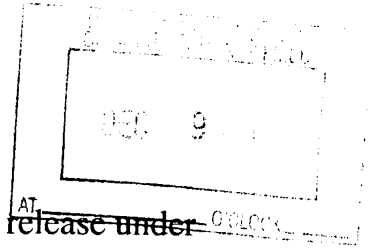

As the person posting bond for an arrested defendant there are conditions of release you should carefully review prior to posting bond. They are explained in Section A and B on the bond sheet. Please review them carefully. They are the lawful conditions of release, not what the arrested defendant may verbally state. Please understand if there are any violations of the conditions of release by the arrested defendant, the defendant can be charged with Bail Jumping and a Motion for Forfeiture of the posted bond monies be brought before the Court. Monies forfeited by the Court will be turned over to the Clerk of Courts Office and not returned to you.

If you have any questions or concerns about posting bond, please ask now or consult an attorney of your choice.

I have read, or have had read to me, the Notice to Bond Poster and understand and accept the risks involved. Yes No

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

Criminal defendants have the right to be eligible for release under Wisconsin Statue §969.01. You should, however, understand the potential risks involved before posting bond.

In addition to the bond form you sign for your release, you must understand any violations of Sections A and B can result in your arrest and prosecution for Bail Jumping along with any other applicable criminal charges. Please carefully read all information printed in Sections A and B.

If there is any part of the conditions of release you do not understand, Please ask now. If there are any violations of this bond, a Forfeiture Motion can be brought before the Court. Monies forfeited by the Court will be turned over to the Clerk of Courts Office and not returned to you. If there are no violations of bond, bond monies can only be returned to the person posting bond.

I have read, or have had read to me, the Notice to Defendant and understand the conditions of release. Yes X No _____
