UNITED STATES OF AMERICA by: Matthew Krueger (via telephone)
RONALD H. VAN DEN HEUVEL, in person and by: Robert G. LeBell (via telephone)
US PROBATION OFFICE by: Brian Koehler
INTERPRETER: None ☐ Interpreter Sworn

This hearing was scheduled to address the report from Pretrial Services as to defendant's report date. The Court was informed the Bureau of Prisons will not designate Mr. Van Den Heuvel for his federal prison sentence until his pending federal charges are resolved. Mr. Van Den Heuvel is currently appealing his conviction and sentence.

The Court will take no action and allow the sentence to be essentially stayed pending the appeal and pending the resolution of the remaining criminal case as long as it does not appear there is an unreasonable delay. Pursuant to the plea agreement, the government has no objections to the 6 month delay in reporting, but is not agreeable to an indefinite delay for reporting. Mr. LeBell has no objections. This matter will be re-visited if the delay is later determined to be unreasonable.

There is a status hearing scheduled in 17-CV-160 for March 16, 2018. Scheduling will be addressed at that time. Mr. LeBell updated the Court as to the receipt of discovery.

Mr. LeBell updates the Court as to the appointment of counsel for the appeal in 16-CR-64.
Mr. Koehler confirms that Mr. Van Den Heuvel has been compliant with conditions of pre-trial release.
