ORDER

The jurisdictional statement in the brief of appellants does not comply with Circuit Rule 28(a)(1), which provides in part: “If jurisdiction depends on diversity of citizenship, the statement shall identify the jurisdictional amount and the citizenship of each party to the litigation. If any party is a corporation, the statement shall identify both the state of incorporation and the state in which the corporation has its principal place of business. If any party is an unincorporated association or partnership the statement shall identify the citizenship of all members.”

Appellants claim that the district court’s jurisdiction is based on diversity under 28 U.S.C. § 1332. Appellants, however, fail to identify the citizenship of all the parties and the amount in controversy. Appellants must provide this information.

IT IS ORDERED that appellants file a paper captioned “Amended Jurisdictional Statement” no later than August 27, 2018, that provide the omitted information noted above and otherwise complies with all the requirements of Circuit Rule 28(a).
