RE: United States v. Ronald H. Van Den Heuvel

I, Ronald H. Van Den Heuvel hereby respectfully ask the court for an additional 30 days to prepare my appeal Pro Se, in Case No. 16-CR-064. My request for an extension is based on the following facts:

1. Exculpatory evidence was intentionally withheld from me;
2. Sentencing evidence was withheld on Horicon Bank;
3. Sentencing information withheld on Paul Pikkila and my FDIC letters as they relate to $40 million dollars;
4. Counsel promised me one year incarceration with a plea deal. That is not what I received;
5. Wrong dollar amount stated as Restitution. $135,000 paid my me as evidence will show. Restitution amount should be $182,000;
6. Documents used outside of the search warrant – 1996 Bank;
7. Health issues in court;
8. Appeal issues

I have a General Search Motion pending and need the extra time to prepare. I sincere hope and belief that these documents I have obtained will change the sentencing and my plea withdrawal outcomes.

Respectfully submitted:

Ronald H. Van Den Heuvel

To Ronald H. Van Den Heuvel
: BROWN COUNTY JAIL

You are the appellant in a case now pending in this court:

No. 18-1147	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff - Appellee  v.  RONALD H. VAN DEN HEUVEL, Defendant - Appellant
Originating Case Information:
District Court No: 1:16-cr-00064-WCG-1 Eastern District of Wisconsin District Judge William C. Griesbach

On August 9, 2018, your attorney filed a brief stating that your appeal is frivolous and requesting permission to withdraw from the case.

1. You have 30 days from the date at the top of this notice to present any argument that you believe shows that your conviction or sentence is invalid.

2. If you do not respond within the 30 days, the court may grant your attorney's request to withdraw and affirm or dismiss your appeal. An affirmance or dismissal would end your appeal, and your conviction and sentence would remain unaltered.
3. If you want to show that the court should not affirm or dismiss your appeal, and you have a very good reason why you cannot file your response with the court within the 30 days, you should immediately write to the court and ask for additional time. The court is willing to grant as many as 30 extra days. If additional time is granted, you must file your response before your additional time expires.
4. You do not have a right to another attorney to assist you in preparing and filing your response to the motion to withdraw from the appeal.

If you want to write to this court, you should address your letters to:

Clerk of the Court
United States Court of Appeals
219 South Dearborn Street, Room 2722
Chicago, Illinois 60604

Be sure when writing, to show clearly the name and number of the case.

IT IS ORDERED that briefing in this appeal is SUSPENDED pending a resolution of this matter.
