The Court and parties discuss jurisdiction the parties in this matter and nature of the case. Mr. Smies discusses why the Promissory Note would not be valid and enforceable.

The parties state this is a contract case and further discuss the note as well as the relationship between the defendant and Ronald VanDenHeuvel. The parties believe Fortune Avenue, LLC is owned by Mr. VanDenHeuvel's brothers. Mr. Smies is unsure as to bringing Mr. VanDenHeuvel into this matter.

The Court and parties discuss scheduling. The parties discuss jury trial demand and state they are unsure at this point if a jury demand will be requested. The Court notes it does not see a jury demand in the original complaint or state court complaint.

Court trial set for September 11, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. with the understanding that the parties may move for a jury trial.
