CASE NUMBER: 18-CR-198

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of your release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency as reasonably directed by the Court or probation officer.
2. You shall not leave the State of Wisconsin without permission of the court or probation officer. You are permitted to travel to the Northern District of Illinois and Minnesota. You shall notify the U.S. Probation office upon leaving Wisconsin when visiting those states. All other travel must be approved by the U.S. Probation Office.
3. You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, and follow the reasonable instructions of the probation officer.
4. You shall use your best efforts to find and hold lawful employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
5. You shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in your place of residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
6. You shall not associate with any persons known by you to be engaged, or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate," as used here, means reside with or regularly socialize with such person.
7. You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at reasonable times at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
8. You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
9. You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

DEFENDANT: PHILIP J. REINHARTCASE NUMBER: 18-CR-198*SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant is to pay restitution at a rate of not less than $100.00 per month or 10% of his or her net earnings, whichever is greater. The defendant will also apply 100 percent of his or her yearly federal and state tax refunds toward the payment of restitution. The defendant shall not change exemptions without prior notice of the supervising probation officer. Any restitution should be joint and several with co-conspirators Tami Phillips and Ronald Van Den Heuvel, to the extent it applies to the WEDC grant money.
2. The defendant shall not open new lines of credit, which includes the leasing of any vehicle or other property, or use existing credit resources without the prior approval of the supervising probation officer. After the defendant's court-ordered financial obligations have been satisfied, this condition is no longer in effect.
3. The defendant is to provide access to all financial information requested by the supervising probation officer including, but not limited to, copies of all federal and state tax returns. All tax returns shall be filed in a timely manner. The defendant shall also submit monthly financial reports to the supervising probation officer. After the defendant's court-ordered financial obligations have been satisfied, this condition is no longer in effect.
