

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

SUSAN DOXTATOR, et al.,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 19-C-137

ERIK O'BRIEN, et al.,

Defendant.

NOTICE OF RULE 16(b) TELEPHONE SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

The parties have now appeared in the above-entitled action, which has been assigned to United States District Judge William C. Griesbach. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b), the Court will initiate and conduct a telephone scheduling conference on May 8, 2019 at 9:30 a.m.

Counsel familiar with the case are expected to attend the conference by telephone. Counsel for the plaintiff and any other attorney or party asserting a claim in the case should be prepared to discuss the merits of their claim or claims, the likely value of each claim based on current knowledge, the anticipated discovery needed before trial, and the cost of such discovery. Counsel for any party against whom a claim is asserted should be prepared to discuss possible defenses, the anticipated discovery needed before trial, and the cost of such discovery. Counsel for each party should advise the Court whether there are any threshold issues that could dispose of the case and be prepared to discuss ways in which such issues can be resolved quickly and inexpensively. All counsel should be prepared to discuss whether discovery of Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) will be sought in this case, in what form it will be requested and costs of production. The purpose of the conference will be to establish a scheduling order which will limit the time:

- (a) to join other parties and to amend the pleadings;
- (b) to file and hear motions;
- (c) to complete discovery; and
- (d) to disclose experts.

The scheduling order may also include the date or dates for subsequent Rule 16 conferences, a final pretrial conference and trial as well as any other matters appropriate in the circumstances of the case. The time limitations set forth in the scheduling order shall not be modified except upon a showing of good cause and with the judge's consent. Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4).

Special attention should be given to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 26(f) which requires the parties to confer with each other at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the initial scheduling conference referenced above. The Rule 26(f) conference between the parties may be conducted by telephone. Rule 26 also mandates that the parties file a written report outlining the proposed discovery plan they have developed at their Rule 26(f) conference. The parties' Rule 26(f) report is to be electronically filed with the Court no later than May 1, 2019, using the Court's electronic case filing system.

In addition to the matters specified in subsections (A)-(F) of Rule 26(f)(3) Fed. R. Civ. P., the Court requests that the proposed discovery plan submitted by the parties include a very brief statement of the nature of the case, limited in length to several sentences.

The court will initiate the call. Counsel are to provide the telephone number at which they can be reached (direct dial preferred) at least two days prior to the telephone conference. In the event counsel are unavailable at the scheduled time of the telephone conference, the conference may be re-scheduled and counsel may be required to appear in person. Please provide your telephone number to the Office of the Clerk at wied_clerks_gb@wied.uscourts.gov

SO ORDERED on April 8, 2019.
