The USCA issued its mandate to enter judgment in favor of Oneida Nation. The Court inquires as to the form of the judgment.

Ms. Locklear states judgment should state declaratory relief. Ms. Locklear discusses injunctive relief.

Mr. Kowalkowski states language from USCA regarding boundaries can be included but should not go beyond the USCA language.

The Court will enter judgment with the specified requested language.

Ms. Locklear states they will submit a bill of costs. The Court finds that the Village's bill of costs is moot.
